All,

It's about time to start organizing the reunion next year. I'm sure my database of contact info is probably pretty outdated and I don't know how many of these email addresses are still valid. I'll work on trying to get current information over the next few months.

If you receive this email, please reply and let me know:

- 1) Are you interested in attending a reunion
- 2) Are you interested in helping with organization
- 3) Do you have any recommendations for what we should do

I am willing and able to assist with the organization of an event and I'm more than happy to kick off the effort.

There is a Facebook page for our class, but it doesn't really have any activity or membership. It was active for a brief time and will probably be our best option for contacting people if we can get people to join the group.

I look forward to hearing from you all. Stay tuned for more info...
